

DISTANCE LEARNING GUIDE

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS

- How will I be productive today?
- How will I find purpose today?
- How will I find possibility and potential today?
- How will I learn and grow today?

WHAT WE BELIEVE

- Students and families could be impacted by a multitude of obstacles that may effect their ability to fully engage in distance learning.
- We are committed to effective feedback, grading, evaluation, and communication during this time.

ESSENTIAL LEARNING

- Create a quiet, comfortable, and dedicated space for learning.
- Prioritize learning by creating a daily schedule.
- Learn something new and devote time to your passions.

RECOMMENDED TIME FOR DAILY TASKS

- Grades K-2: Up to 1.5 hours of work per day*
- Grades 3-5: Up to 2 hours of work per day*
- Grades 6-8: Up to 2.5 hours of work per day*
- Grades 9-12: Up to 3 hours of work per day*
- All grade levels read or be read aloud to daily.

*These are general guidelines and some students may take more or less time

CONSISTENT COMMUNICATION

- Phone calls, emails, video conferences, classroom applications, and teacher websites will be used as methods of communication.
- Check sites daily to stay informed.

GRADING

- Grades K-2 will use marks of "P" (Progressing) and "NP" (Not Progressing).
- Traditional letter grade scale will be used for grades 3-12 with thoughtful consideration of individual circumstances.
- Those who willfully neglect coursework will receive a mark of "NP" or "F" for the quarter.

BE WELL

- Eat healthy.
- Have patience with yourself and your family.
- Stick to a sleep schedule and eating routine.
- Exercise.
- Reach out to any staff member if you are feeling overwhelmed, we are here to help!

WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER, WE ARE BULLDOG STRONG!
